

The background of the entire image is a photograph of the Tower Bridge in London, England, during sunset. The bridge's two towers are illuminated with warm lights, and the bridge's suspension cables are visible against the sky. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a soft, golden glow. The River Thames is in the foreground, with a few boats visible. The sky is a mix of orange, pink, and purple. There are some decorative elements: three diagonal white lines on the right side and a small starburst light near the bottom right.
